IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that all claims asserted against Nationwide Credit, Inc. in the above-styled and -numbered civil action are hereby DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE with costs taxed against the party incurring the same.<sup>1</sup> This is a partial dismissal and does not affect Plaintiff's remaining claims asserted against American Express Company—which remain subject to final and binding arbitration.<sup>2</sup>

SO ORDERED this 1st day of February, 2021.

<sup>1</sup> Although the Parties' stipulation seeks "the dismissal with prejudice of the above-styled case. . .," the Court notes that the stipulation also only seeks the dismissal of "any claims that were raised or that could have been raised . . . against NCI. . . ."

<sup>2</sup> The Court notes that American Express National Bank has been erroneously named as American Express Company in this civil action.
